Finn is currently a trainee solicitor in the Employment team.

She acts for individuals, companies and charities on a variety of work including contracts, policies, redundancies and other day to day aspects of employment. Finn also supports the team with employment disputes involving ACAS and tribunal claims.

Prior to this, Finn sat in the Private Real Estate team and was involved in residential property transactions as well as sales, purchases and leases of large rural estates. In this seat Finn initiated a pro-bono matter for a charity client.
