Christina is an associate in the Litigation and Arbitration team.

Christina started her career as an advocate and solicitor of the Singapore bar in 2017. Her work focused on dispute resolution, including litigation before the Singapore Courts as well as arbitration matters administered by the Singapore International Arbitration Centre (SIAC).

She subsequently decided to pursue her interest in international law, obtaining an LLM in international dispute settlement with the Geneva Graduate Institute and University of Geneva in 2019. She has since spent time in a top international law firm in Paris, working in particular on a high-value ICSID claim in the energy sector.

She now works on matters involving public international law, investment treaty arbitration and international commercial arbitration.
