Felicity is an associate in the immigration team.

Felicity has over 10 years' experience in assisting High Net Worth clients and their families relocate to the UK. Felicity provides long-term strategic advice to clients from entry clearance through to citizenship. Given Felicity's breadth of practical experience and knowledge of various different immigration categories, she is able to find bespoke, creative solutions to clients' complex circumstances.

Felicity also assists with the business side of the practice. Her clients range from start-ups to large multinational companies. She has expertise in advising on all aspects of corporate immigration including sponsor license applications, skilled worker visas and compliance advisory work and audit.

She is especially skilled at managing corporate accounts and providing bespoke, complicated advice in relation to business needs.
