Michael is a partner in the divorce and family team.

Michael has been an integral member of the market leading divorce and family team at Withers for nearly 30 years.

Michael advises on all aspects of family law (including pre- and post-nuptial agreements) with particular emphasis on the resolution of financial issues for wealthy individuals whether married or unmarried and usually with international interests. Michael has acted in numerous divorce cases involving trusts and businesses. Michael also has extensive experience of children law matters, including international relocation.

His breadth of work involves close liaison with many other specialist practice areas at Withers including the contentious trusts and estates team and the wealth planning teams in London, US, Switzerland and Asia (often stress-testing wealth holding structures and advising families on succession).

Michael's wide variety of clients (from UK, Europe, US, Middle East and Russia) include business owners and entrepreneurs, financiers and other city professionals, landowners, sports and music stars, politicians, and their spouses/partners.

Michael provides expert media commentary on family law issues, and he has chaired and lectured at various family law conferences in England and abroad.

Michael is a certified family law arbitrator, and a trained collaborative lawyer.

Michael is former Treasurer of the European Chapter of the International Academy of Family Lawyers, and curated and chaired an acclaimed education programme at the annual conference in Venice in February 2023. He has been a member of Resolution's Cohabitation Committee since its inception in 1995.

Michael has for several years been listed as a leading family lawyer in the legal directories (including Chambers & Partners, Legal 500, Spears, and Citywealth) in which he has variously been described as follows:

'Michael is a standout lawyer'; 'a real class act'; 'measured, sensible and knows his law'; 'highly intelligent, very efficient and a pleasure to deal with - a really strong practitioner'; 'is just excellent and often sought after by high net worth individuals'; a 'first-class lawyer'; and 'he has encyclopaedic knowledge in the area'; and 'an exceptionally thorough and able lawyer...thinking outside and inside the box which so many of the bigger financial cases need'.

When not at his desk, Michael enjoys playing and watching sport (including running his own cricket side, tennis, road cycling and skiing), and spending time with his family.

Track record

Non-disclosure case

D v D [2015] - a case involving allegations of non-disclosure, and sharing of future income from offshore contracts entered into during marriage.

Disclosure in divorce proceedings

Tchenguiz-Imerman v Imerman [CA 2010], which changed the law on disclosure and confidentiality of documents between spouses in divorce proceedings.

Trust beneficiaries in divorce

Two further reported decisions of Tchenguiz-Imerman v Imerman [2013] relating to the joinder of trust beneficiaries to financial proceedings on divorce and consequential disclosure.

Opposing mother's application

Acting for the father in the ground breaking children's case of C v C International Relocation [2011], successfully opposing the mother's application to move with the children to live in the US. This case preceded the similar decision by the Court of Appeal in the landmark case of K v K later that year (in which Withers also acted for the successful father).

Asset tracing

OS v DS [2004] creating a new precedent for asset-tracing.
