Alex is a senior associate in the intellectual property and technology team.

Alex joined the firm from Diligent, a leading GRC SaaS provider, where he spent nearly 4 years, most recently as Assistant General Counsel.

Alex specialises in commercial arrangements involving intellectual property, technology and data, including rights acquisitions and disposals, portfolio structuring, licensing, procurement and the full range of related commercial agreements, with a particular emphasis on the sports, technology and innovation sectors. Alex also advises on data protection compliance strategies.
