Luca is a special counsel in the asset finance team.

He works on a variety of matters involving both commercial aircraft and business jets. Luca regularly represents clients in connection with all manner of aircraft operating leases, aircraft sales and acquisitions, asset-backed financings, credit facilities and capital markets offerings, such as portfolio securitizations. He provides contractual advice to airlines, aircraft operators and leasing companies. In addition, Luca regularly advises private clients and ultra-high net worth individuals and their businesses in relation to the sale, purchase (including broker and back-to-back transactions), leasing and financing of new and used corporate aircraft.

Prior to joining Withers, he worked in leading international law firms in Hong Kong and Italy.

Luca is qualified to practice law in the United States (New York) and Italy (Milan).
