Jon Bond is a partner in the banking and finance team.

Jon is a specialist in real estate finance, receivables finance, sports finance and leverage finance and advises across a broad range of asset classes including residential development and commercial real estate, retirement living and care homes and student accommodation. He acts on behalf of debt funds, banks, private banks, developers, institutional borrowers, private companies, and high net worth investors and family offices. Jon has also represented leading clubs, including Premiership and Championship football clubs, in addition to governing bodies from a number of sports.

Jon has worked on a wealth of projects in the UK, and has significant experience across emerging markets, working with clients in Africa and the Middle East since 2005.

Jon is recognised as a key lawyer for Property Finance in Legal 500, a testament to his position as a trusted advisor within the sector.
