Heidi is an associate in the divorce and family team.

Heidi is a specialist family lawyer with experience in highly contentious family disputes involving cross-border assets. Familiar with the complexities of asset division in contentious family disputes, Heidi's practice includes advising clients on the drafting and execution of marital agreements such as pre-nuptial and post-nuptial agreements.

Heidi is a zealous advocate of children's welfare, bearing in mind that children are often adversely affected by divorce. She strives to achieve the best outcome for her clients while keeping the children's interests at the forefront.
