Dora is a partner in the private client and tax team.

She specialises in all aspects of probate, succession and tax planning, both domestic and international, particularly for high net worth families and family offices. Dora also advises on lifetime cross border succession, planning and estates.

Dora often coordinates teams of professional advisers for major estates, both internally and externally, and deals with the non-contentious aspects of disputes relating to the validity of wills, Inheritance (Provision for Family) and Dependants Act 1975 claims, construction and rectification of wills, working closely with the trust and succession disputes team.

Dora specialises in international estates, in particular estates with a US and UK element, and domicile claims, including providing assistance for stress testing domicile pre-death.
