Eleanor is an associate in the private client and tax team.

Eleanor advises clients on a range of trust, tax and succession planning matters. She advises UK domiciled and non-domiciled high net worth individuals and families in respect of their estate and lifetime tax and succession planning, including the preparation of Wills, Trusts and Lasting Powers of Attorney.

Eleanor trained at Withers and completed seats in the private client, corporate/charities, trusts estates and inheritance disputes and property departments.

Prior to joining Withers, Eleanor had broad and varied paralegal experience in private client, property and litigation.
