Ana is an associate in the immigration team.

Ana is a multilingual Associate with an international background, specialised in UK Immigration and Nationality law. Admitted as a solicitor in the UK in 2019 but with over ten years of experience in the Immigration field in the UK, she represents both private individuals and multinational companies and advises them on all aspects of UK Immigration and Nationality Law. As a migrant who experienced the UK relocation process, she finds it easy to build relationships with clients and communicate to them effortlessly.

She works closely with clients to provide long-term strategic planning for applicants' relocation to the UK, crafted around the client's needs and ultimate goal.

Ana has particular expertise and is passionate about advising EU citizens and their family members and their rights in the UK, post Brexit and has successfully obtained status for clients with complex personal circumstances and late applications submitted on a discretionary basis.

Ana regularly advises on complex British nationality applications and has an in-depth knowledge of assisting British nationals with their spouses' and children's UK visas.

Ana assists all types of companies, from start-ups to multinational corporations, with obtaining Sponsor Licences and sponsoring migrants for their business. She also advises companies on compliance and audits.

Over the years, Ana has been recognised as a specialist by several Eastern European diasporas present in the UK and has been a point of contact for their UK Immigration queries. She continues to do pro-bono work for these diasporas and has assisted a large number of people who do not have access to legal advice. She was one of the first immigration specialists to help Ukrainian refugees wishing to come to the UK following the Russian invasion of Ukraine and has been offering free immigration consultations to those in dire need of assistance.
