Katie is a senior associate in the employment team.

She trained at Withers and now provides a wide range of practical advice both to employers and employees on all aspects of employment law.

Katie's work covers the full lifecycle of the employment relationship from hiring to firing and beyond. She is particularly experienced in providing strategic advice to clients in the advertising sector and has an increasingly busy practice advising senior creatives and start-ups.

As well as providing legal advice, Katie is adept at managing often very sensitive situations and providing the necessary support and guidance for her clients.
