Filippo is a practising Italian Commercialista and a partner within our private client and tax team.

Filippo's core focus lies on tax issues relating to individuals, family business restructuring, as well as taxation of sports and entertainment personalities.

He assists Italian, foreign HNWIs and high net worth families with estate planning, real estate investments, family wealth management, trust structures and issues concerning international and corporate taxation.

Filippo's proven track record also spans clients wishing to benefit from the Italian flat tax regime, inbound workers regime and other tailored tax incentives for individuals relocating to Italy.

He has also garnered select expertise in assisting private clients with procedures to regularise assets and foreign held income.

Moreover, Filippo has handled and assisted with tax issues pertaining to philanthropy and nonprofit entities.
