Alexandra is an associate in the immigration team.

Alexandra has over 10 years of experience in immigration, assisting both businesses and private individuals with their immigration needs. She advises on all aspects of UK immigration law and also has experience in nationality law and applying for British citizenship.

Alexandra provides strategic advice to clients, taking account of their long term goals, including settling in the UK. She regularly assists with complex and discretionary applications across a range of immigration matters.

Alexandra has particular experience in family based applications, as well as business and investment based applications such as Entrepreneur, Innovator and Global Talent. She excels at understanding a client's objectives and provides bespoke advice necessary to achieve these goals.

Alexandra also works with companies and organisations to obtain sponsor licences, as well as guiding sponsors on compliance and audits, assisting employees with Skilled Worker and Global Business Mobility (ICT) applications and providing training to clients.
