Frederick is an associate in the Private client and tax team.

He works on a broad range of matters including estate planning for both domestic and international clients (which includes the drafting of wills and lasting powers of attorney but also more complex trust structures), assisting with UK tax residency advice for those looking to move to the UK ('arrivers') or those looking to depart ('leavers') and both standalone and ongoing HMRC enquiries.

Prior to qualifying into the Private client and tax team as an Associate, Frederick, in addition to training in the Private Client and Tax team, also worked as a trainee in the Charities, Employment and International Arbitration teams.
